

CANADA CARBON TAX REBATE SCAM ALERT

Canadian police services are alerting the public about a Canada Carbon Tax Rebate e-Transfer scam currently circulating via email and text message. This scam may involve look-alike domains and phishing websites designed to deceive recipients. Please note that this scam is likely to resurface periodically, particularly around the distribution dates for the Canada Carbon Tax Rebate which are:

- January 15
- April 15
- July 15
- October 15

Never click on any any unexpected e-transfer notifications. If you are unsure, call CRA directly or call us at Niverville Credit Union at 204-388-4747. Thank you.
